Proper Citation: Gene Atlas (RRID:SCR_008089)

Description: This website allows visitors to search for genes of interest based on their spatial expression patterns in the Postnatal Day 7 mouse brain. Geneatlas provides two searching tools: A graphical interface for customized spatial queries; A textual interface for querying annotated structures. Geneatlas is the product of a collaboration between researchers at Baylor College of Medicine, Rice University, and University of Houston.

Abbreviations: Geneatlas

Resource Type: atlas, data or information resource, database

Keywords: gene, brain, mouse, protein, spatial expression, molecular neuroanatomy resource, FASEB list

Funding: Burroughs Wellcome Fund ;
NLM 5T15LM07093;
