Proper Citation: Academic Drug Discovery Consortium (RRID:SCR_003706)

Description: A collaborative network among university-led drug discovery centers and programs to allow scientists to exchange technical expertise on drug discovery and development strategies as well as form partnerships with each other, biopharma companies, and drug discovery-focused contract service organizations and consultants. The website will also serve as a repository for drug discovery events, educational material, job postings, and partnership opportunities. Through active member participation this website will become a valuable tool for every scientist working in the drug discovery arena. In addition, involvement of members will enable them to effectively advocate to the NIH and other funding agencies to increase the awareness of the growing number of academic drug discovery scientists and their success as well as their needs.
