Description: A Brachypodium distachyon comparative genomics resource offering a genome browser, BLAST server, download capabilities, Brachypodium physical map, Comparative maps, and comparison with rice and Sorghum chromosomes. * Genome browser >>> Browse the v1.0 genome assembly and the v1.0 gene predictions from JGI/MIPS. Also displays JIC FST data (T-DNA lines) and alignments of ESTs from wheat, barley and Brachypodium. * BLAST server >>> BLAST your sequences against the Brachypodium sequence assembly and the predicted proteome. * Download sequence >>> Download sequence from the brachy assembly (limited to 50kb regions). Download complete assembly file as FASTA. Download sequence and additional data from the v1.0 annotated assembly including protein-coding sequences as FASTA, translated coding sequences as FASTA, gene sequences as FASTA, and COS markers. PLEASE NOTE: The published genome analysis is based on the v1.0 annotation. The v1.2 annotation can be downloaded from MIPS. * Brachypodium physical map >>> Brachypodium physical map data displayed using SyMAP. (view in genome browser) * Comparative maps >>> Brachypodium genetic and physical maps aligned to rice and wheat. * Comparison with rice and Sorghum chromosomes >>> Dotplots of the Brachypodium assembly aligned to rice and Sorghum chromosomes.
