Proper Citation: University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center Moody Foundation Flow Cytometry Core Facility (RRID:SCR_017807)

Description: Core provides flow cytometry services to scientists, offers analytical cytometry and high-speed sorting either in investigator operated format or facility staff assisted format, offers training for research personnel interested in learning how to design flow cytometry experiments, operate instrumentation and analyze data. Services include experimental design, protocol development, sample staining, instrument operation, data analysis, graphical production, sample processing as a Service (SpaaS). Facility is equipped with three cell sorters and four cell analyzers.
