Proper Citation: University of Tennessee KnoxvilleAdvanced Microscopy and Imaging Center AMIC Core Facility (RRID:SCR_028273)

Description: Multi-user, multi-disciplinary facility that provides microscopy and imaging services. It houses instrumentation for optical microscopy including laser scanning confocal microscopy and total internal reflection microscopy (TIRF), scanning as well as transmission electron microscopy, MALDI mass spectrometry imaging, and an X-ray MicroCT. Offers complete technical support, individual training and courses that cover both the practical applications and physical principles of microscopy. Provides consultations for development of microscopy projects for inclusion in grant proposals.

Synonyms: Advanced Microscopy and Imaging Center (AMIC)

Resource Type: access service resource, core facility, service resource

Keywords: ABRF, microscopy and imaging services, optical microscopy, laser scanning confocal microscopy, total internal reflection microscopy, scanning and transmission electron microscopy, MALDI mass spectrometry imaging, X-ray MicroCT,
